Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - The review and approval of the Form 990 was delegated to the Finance Committee of the Board. The 990 was also distributed to the Board of Directors prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Annually, the board and key employees are required to sign and update their conflict of interest statements. These statements are reviewed by the Executive Committee of the Board. Members who have conflicts of interest are prohibited from participating in the discussion or voting on issues related to the conflicted area.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The first part of the process involves evaluation of performance. The CEO completes a self review and forwards it to the Board Chairwoman for completion of the final performance evaluation. The Board Chair also request current market data for the Association's Director of Human Resources along with the current budget/merit details for the Association as a whole to ensure any increase is aligned with the Association's budget. The Chairwoman's final recommendation for the CEO for any salary increase is also shared with the Board Executive Committee. The Committee then approves the CEO's salary. For all other Officers, the CEO review the performance, market data and budget details, and makes her recommendation to the Board or its designated committee.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The Association's annual report is available on its website. The Association's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available upon written request.

Other Program Services Accomplishments

Activity Code	Description	Expense	Grants	Revenue
	Children and Youth includes the School Age Care and YW Teens programs. School Age Care serves families with children ages 5-13. While attending the YWCA School Age Care Programs, children are encouraged to engage in a multitude of different activities; some of which may be a child's favorite thing to do, while others may be completely new to a child. Activities include but are not limited to the following: arts, crafts, blocks, cultural awareness, financial literacy, dramatic play, gross motor skills, language arts, reading and academic enrichment. YW-Teens serves primarily girls in grades 6-12 who reside in the St. Louis Metro area. Age ranges from 11-16. Services are provided through the following activities: 1) Young Women's Leadership Academy which consists of programs and bi-annual leadership conferences that support middle and high school aged girls on their journey to adulthood by helping them to identify, develop and apply leadership and life skills through a series of curriculum -based youth development initiative offered year-round either embedded in the school day or non school hours (after school, summer or Saturdays). 2) Emerging Entrepreneurs is a year-round economic empowerment program that introduces area high school students to entrepreneurship through the development of educational and experiential activities. 1,918 were served in 2013.	635,835	100	320,201
