YWCA Bid Specifications

We stress that our interest is in QUALITY WORKMANSHIP and SERVICE. We are not interested in marginal service. The YWCA properties are to maintain in a first-class manner

The following items should be carefully read and acted upon accordingly:

1. All asphalt repairs will require removal of all loose material and matching existing grade of surrounding area.
2. Some milling required at selected locations.
3. All Areas to be sealed will be free of all loose rock, gravel and debris.
4. All areas to be sealed will have cracks and openings filled with appropriate crack sealant.
5. Job site is to be always kept clean and safe. The contractor shall comply with all provisions and requirements of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970. The Contractor is fully responsible for the safety and health of all persons engaged in said work and acknowledges that, with respect to such persons, the YWCA shall not be construed as nor be held liable for any obligations as an employer within the meaning of the Act. Failure to comply with this provision will allow the YWCA to terminate the agreement immediately without notice.
6. All bids and proposals rendered by the Contractor to the YWCA shall be quoted in prices good for 90 days. Contractor shall be responsible for careless workmanship. If a task is not performed to produce the specified, standard result, it shall be re-done at the Contractor's expense. Rework shall be performed without charge and shall not interfere with nor detract from the performance of regular, scheduled work.
7. Some Locations may require work to be performed after hours or on weekends which ever schedule provides the least disruption to YWCA daily operations.
8. Davis Bacon Act is required for this bid package. (Certified payroll will be required when requested).
9. Release of lien Waiver will be required at end of project before full payment can be made.
10. Contractor must meet all bid requirements before last payment is made.
11. Replacing, relocating, or installing new curb stops will be determined later.

- 12. Damage to YWCA property will be fully reimbursable to YWCA and be the responsibility of the contractor.
- 13. Contractor and YWCA representative will discuss and review project specifications before the start of the project to eliminate any confusion or misunderstandings of work expectations to be performed.
- 14. Contractor is to provide schedules for all services.
- 15. No work called for in this proposal is to be subcontracted to another company, Contractor. Concrete pad at the Kirkwood Facility is exempt.
- 16. This is not an invitation or offer to contract and creates no obligations on the part of the YWCA and no rights on the part of the participant. YWCA reserves the right to reject or accept proposals in whole or in part, or to discuss different or additional terms to those contemplated by this RFP. YWCA may modify, amend, terminate, or extend the RFP process for any or all participants, as YWCA shall deem appropriate.
- 17. The participant will be solely responsible for any costs it may incur in connection with this RFP. YWCA is not liable for any of participant's costs or expenses and will not reimburse participant for any of its costs or expenses under any circumstance, including rejection of any or all proposals or cancellation of the RFP.
- 18. YWCA reserves the right to waive deficiencies, informalities or irregularities in any proposal received and to accept the proposal which, in the YWCA's own judgment is in the YWCA's own best interests. YWCA reserves the right to request new or additional information at any time prior to the submission of a proposal or in response to a proposal.
- 19. YWCA has the right to negotiate with any participant during and following the RFP process, and as part of that negotiation, to negotiate changes, amendments, or modifications to the proposal without disclosure to other participants and without offering other participants the opportunity to amend their proposals.
- 20. The YWCA reserves the right to accept or reject any proposal without explanation.
- 21. All personnel are to be employees of the Contractor but will be always subject to approval of the YWCA. In addition, at the start of the contract, and continuing for as long as deemed necessary by the YWCA, at its sole election.

- 22. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed nor construed by the YWCA or Contractor as creating the relationship of principal or agent or of a partnership or joint venture. It is understood that the Contractor is an independent contractor, supplying services to the YWCA. All work performed by the Contractor and its personnel will always be subject to review and acceptance by the YWCA. The YWCA reserves the right to modify these specifications at any time during the term of this agreement and negotiate added costs, if any.
- 23. The Contractor shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and ordinances in its business conduct at the YWCA and shall furnish the YWCA with copies of any and all permits, inspections and licenses required. Contractor to provide all necessary permits, inspections to complete the work.
